Distribution. Distribute according to DA Form 12-88-E, block 0852, command level B.

Living in Germany can be exciting and fun. There are many sights to see and things to experience.

While living in Germany, however, you are governed by special international agreements, including the NATO Status of Forces Agreement or "SOFA". This agreement governs the relationship between Germany and the U.S. military on matters of criminal jurisdiction, passport and visa regulations, taxes, claims, drivers licenses, airport regulations, and other civil and legal matters.

U.S. civilian employees and U.S. family members accused of criminal offenses are always subject to German jurisdiction. German courts have jurisdiction over all parties in civil actions, regardless of nationality or military status.

You may sue and be sued in German courts for such matters as failure to pay debts or breach of lease. If you are sued by someone, your legal assistance officer can offer free legal advice.

Individual Logistic Support

The Commander in Chief (CINC), USAREUR, authorizes individual logistic support for civilians (family members and employees) who accompany the U.S. Forces.

This support is conditional on the civilians' good behavior. When civilians break host nation laws or violate U.S. regulations, the CINC may revoke or permanently suspend this support.

The authority to revoke or suspend support also has been delegated to civilian misconduct action authorities (CMAAs) and base support battalion (BSB) commanders.

The BSB commander normally is responsible for upholding the morale, welfare, safety, and good order within the BSB geographic area.

The CMAA may suspend or revoke an offender's privileges USAREUR-wide.

Privileges that may be suspended (or revoked) include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) AAFES sales facility privileges will be suspended for 6 months for shoplifting or for knowingly presenting a bad check.
- (2) Commissary privileges may be suspended for an appropriate period of time if those privileges are abused.
- (3) Offenders may be denied participation in MWR activities if the denial is in the best interest of the activity, the community, or the U.S. Army.
- (4) Club privileges may be denied if the denial is in the best interest of the activity, the community, or the U.S. Army.
 - (5) Check-cashing privileges may be suspended if they are abused.

- (6) Government quarters may be terminated if civilian sponsors or family members of a sponsor are involved in illegal use of quarters, or misconduct contrary to safety, health, or morale.
 - (7) Ration privileges may be suspended if they are abused.
 - (8) USAREUR Regulation 600-702 prescribes criteria for suspending Class Six privileges.
- (9) USAREUR driving privileges may be suspended or revoked based on USAREUR Regulation 190-1.

Incidents of civilian misconduct will be resolved as quickly and informally as possible. The CMAA will process actions thoroughly and fairly, acting in concert with the military police, host nation authorities, and investigating officers. CMAA actions are administrative, not criminal.

Family members and U.S. civilian employees may receive confidential advice and assistance for legal matters by visiting the legal assistance division of the local office of the staff judge advocate (OSJA).

Community Supervision Programs

Community supervision programs are an effective way to determine if an offender is willing to be a responsible community member. Community supervision programs will be tailored to the offense and the offender.

Examples include requiring the offender to-

- (1) Periodically report in person to the community supervision officer or an appropriate designee.
- (2) Receive periodic home visits from the community supervision officer or appropriate designee.
 - (3) Remain at home during specific hours.
 - (4) Perform voluntary community services.
- (5) Make payments to or perform services for persons affected by the misconduct to reimburse them for damage or loss.

The offender (and a parent if the offender is a child) must consent in writing to participation in community supervision programs.

The Last Straw

CMAAs will consider advance (early) return of family members and civilian offenders to the United States when other administrative measures are not expected to be effective.

- (1) CMAAs will ask sponsors to request advance return of the offender to the United States.
- (2) If the sponsor does not request advance return of the offender, the BSB commander may authorize advance return without the sponsor's request.
- (3) If advance return of a family member to the U.S. is anticipated and a violation of German law in involved, the local liaison authority will notify the appropriate judicial authorities. The offender will not be returned to the United States without host nation approval.
- (4) When advance return is authorized and the offender refuses to leave, or leaves and returns to USAREUR, the CMAA may initiate action to revoke individual logistic support (other than medical care). Termination of Government quarters may be appropriate.
- (5) In appropriate cases, the CMAA may ask that the 1st Personnel Command curtail the military sponsor's overseas tour.
- (6) Only host nation authorities may remove offenders involuntarily from the host country. This action should be used only when other actions, including advance return of family members and curtailment of tour, have not been appropriate or effective.

General Rules and Regulations of USAREUR Schools

While protecting the rights and privileges of students, each school has policies meant to enhance the students' safety, welfare, and dignity. Involvement in any of the following offenses is cause for suspension from school and a notice being sent to the community commander:

- Cheating.
- Repeatedly being absent or tardy without an excuse.
- Consuming, possessing, storing, or being under the influence of alcohol or drugs during the schoolday or during school activities.
- Disrespecting or defying school authorities.
- Falsely setting off a fire alarm or making a bomb threat.
- Fighting.
- Forging signatures of school officials or sponsors.
- Setting fires.
- Smoking.
- Stealing.
- Using or carrying fire-crackers, explosives, or potential weapons in school.
- Vandalizing or maliciously abusing Government, school, or personal property.
